HEALING AND DISCIPLING FOR 55 FORMER MUSLIM WOMEN FROM NORTH AFRICA AND EVEN IRAQ. BOLD AS LIONS NOW.

The Magical Muslim Convert Women of France. No hype here.

Every year, if funds are available, converted Muslim women meet in France together for a blockbuster long weekend in Lyon to breathe fresh air. Why do they meet? They come from backgrounds of foolishly marrying non-Christians, many divorced, some abused, attempted poisoning for their conversions, and feeling like a low class, even a caste of no worth and needing teaching, counseling, prayer and group dancing as in their own culture. They come from North Africa, Iraq, Lebanon, but mostly North Africa. Evey and two other Anglos had the privilege to be invited among them. It was a Muslim woman convert event. Some come as spiritually weak and broken, and then depart strong, outreaching and transformed.

Now it came about when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was standing opposite him with his sword drawn in his hand, and Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us or for our adversaries?" He said, "No; rather I indeed come now as captain of the host of the Lord." And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and bowed down, and said to him, "What has my lord to say to his servant?"
Joshua 5:13

The Muslim Converts Transformed

Many can't attend because they can't afford the minimal transport with the super cheap "BlaBla" car, sort of an Uber car that only goes from city to city. We are working on a foundation that can provide funds as a 501-C3.

Still 55 came this year in. Read on: these are the women who can and will change France. Many are the powerhouse of evangelism to Muslims in particular. What they are doing?

An Iraqi woman was there, preaching the gospel all over the place, Terzaka, (means hail storm when born.) Also a former Muslim, she went to Calais, where the tent city of immigrants trying to get to England were suffering. Our former worship leader, Majab, brought up an Iraqi and an Iranian to a conference in Paris, where Tass, our treasured former Muslim tower of strength hosted them. She plays a big part in the "Allelula North Afrique" worship group

Cass' Mother First Christian in her Algerian Village

Domi, an Anglo with a brain tumor, hosted outreach to Muslims in their home near Aix-en-Provence, was honored greatly.

Two women washed everyone's feet. Haida, whose father locked her up, took her to Gex, France, where she came to Christ in a care center with Mennonites. She lives in Montpellier. Her mother says, "You have come back to the faith." Miriam's daughter Cass, just 19, swept in to the praise of all in attendance.

She, a 2nd generation Muslim convert, studies at Moody. Megan, also from Moody, grew up in Uganda, and attends the same Bible school with Cass. Both 19 years old, studying cross cultural studies.

The yearly event is sponsored by the "Carriers of Water," 3 dynamic and visionary Muslim converts from North Africa. They said, "If a foundation can't sponsor us, we'll dig the money out of our own pockets." Three fire brands. In conclusion, 55 former Muslim women came to express their culture in worship, dance, and to revive their sometimes broken spirits. Devoid of teaching on marriage has led to abuse, divorce, and worse in some cases. They are the Mary Magdalenes of Jesus' day, who consider themselves unworthy of the Jesus they serve, the One who is putting them into power houses of faith, as they meet together.
